

PROSPECTS FOR STUDENT LOAN FUND LOOM BRIGHT

Primary Elections For Student Body Officers To Be Held Friday

LOBBYING, "WIRE PULLING" EVIDENT AMONG SUPPORTERS

Candidates Receiving Highest Number of Votes Will Be Held Over For Finals.

Real politics come into play Friday, when primary elections for Student Body officers will be held. The name of each candidate will be placed on the ballot. The two getting the highest number of votes will then be eligible to run in the final elections, which will be held the following Friday.

Although there is no formal party formation for the primary elections, competition is keen and much lobbying and "wire pulling" for candidates is noticeable in the halls. Many various prophecies are heard as to the outcome of the elections. The following are the nominees:

FOR PRESIDENT

E. H. Harter.
Wayne Mayhew.
Ralph Keeler.
Richard Condie.
Harold Bentley.
Stewart Williams.
West Parkinson.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

Anna Marie Eggertsen.
Helen Candland.
Alice Taylor.
Virginia Christensen.

FOR SECRETARY-HISTORIAN

Celestia Johnson.
Elaine Christensen.
Henrietta Taylor.

FOR EDITOR OF "Y" NEWS

W. Glenn Harmon.
Brian L. Decker.
A. Glenn Hubbard.

FOR BUSINESS MANAGER OF "Y" NEWS

Paul Murdock.
Leland Wentz.
Stanley Dean.
Carl J. Christensen.
Royden Dangerfield.

FOR MANAGING EDITOR OF BANYAN

Roland Browning.
Vivian Bentley.
Wayne C. Booth.

FOR EDITOR WHITE & BLUE

Wanda Boyack.
EDITOR Y'S GUY
Meith Maeser.
Carlyle Maw.

FOR MANAGER OF FORENSICS

Le grand Noble.

FOR CHEER MASTER

Francis Wilcox.
Clarence Jensen.
Robert Winslow.
Norman Wing.

ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION

Wanda Boyack, and Le Grand Noble, nominees for the White and Blue, and Manager of Forensics, respectively, are the only nominees for their respective offices. Thus they have no competition and therefore are elected by acclamation.

FACULTY MEN ACCEPT CHALLENGE

The faculty men of the B. Y. U. were so elated because of their victory over the visiting H. S. Faculties in the Horse Shoe Contest Saturday, that they have decided to accept the challenge of the B. Y. U. Benedict. The faculty will meet them any evening.

Co-eds Self Supporting

Of the 1,734 co-eds of Minnesota University, 15 per cent are totally self supporting.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS * DRAMATIC PRESENTATION *

"The Country Boy" staged last Friday night in College Hall, was filled and all those present were pleased to the greatest extent. The numerous character roles offered clean-cut, witty comedy and gave to the audience many occasions for outbursts of genuine chuckles and guffaws. The fact that the humorous side of the story proved so very popular, did not lessen the interest that surrounded the plot and theme of the story.

INVITATION MEET * IS LARGEST HELD AT THE B. Y. U. *

The Invitation Meet held last Saturday was the largest ever staged by the Young University. Over one hundred and thirty athletes representing the high schools of the state participated and helped to make the event successful. Two complete meets, including Junior high and grade schools were run off between the hours of 2:30 and 6:30 P. M. The faculty horse-shoe pitching contest, won by Manti High school, was one of the features of the afternoon.

WEST HIGH TAKES HIGH SCHOOL EVENTS.

The high school events were particularly interesting and closely contested. The results are as follows:

West High	45
East High	30 1-3
L. D. S. U.	16
Payson	14 1-3
Spanish Fork	10
Springville	6
Provo	6
American Fork	4 1-3
Pleasant Grove	2

Howard Carman was the star of the meet. He won the high jump, javelin throw, took second in the broad jump and 440 yard dash and was a member of the West High relay team which took first place.

GRADE SCHOOLS PARTICIPATE

A new feature of this year's meet was the participation of many grade schools and the girls of the colleges and high schools. The experiment of running these events was very successful and have undoubtedly won a place in the meet. All these contests were very interesting and enjoyed by all.

Dr. Talmage Delivers First Lecture

Dr. James E. Talmage of the Quorum of the Twelve, gave the first of his series of lectures on "Revelation and Prophecy," last Wednesday in College Hall. His lecture was mainly a discussion of the meaning and nature of revelation. "Revelation," said Dr. Talmage, "is God discovering himself to man, not man finding God. When God declares any truth to us, it is revelation. It has much of the meaning belonging to discovery. A revelation comes from the higher to the lower. Its purpose is to make known the existence, attributes and knowledge of God."

FATHER KILAIRE TO LECTURE ON ART

Father Kilaire of the Catholic Church will speak in College Hall tonight at 8:00 o'clock, under the auspices of the Provo Dramatic Center. The subject to be discussed is: "The Roman Catholic Church and Art." This lecture is one of the concluding ones of the year.

Degrees are Conferred

At the University of Chicago spring convocation recently 192 degrees were conferred. Of the total six went to Chinese, two to Japanese, one to a Porto Rican, one to a Filipino and one to an East Indian.

W. GLENN HARMON AND RICHARD CONDIE WILL LEAVE FOR CAL.

Will Represent Young University In Intellectual Combat With Experienced Debating Team.

W. G. Harmon and Richard Condie will leave Friday for California, where they will meet the University of Redlands in debate Saturday night. The question is the same as that debated with the U. of Southern California, however, the B. Y. U. will take the affirmative.

The Redland men have had a great deal of experience, their team having traveled throughout the East.

This is the first time the B. Y. U. has debated Redlands. A return debate is scheduled in the contract, and Redlands will debate here next year or in 1924.

Professor Elmer Nelson will present an Eastern Cantata in the Tabernacle next Saturday night. It is to be given under the auspices of the Stake Presidency. It begins promptly at 8:15 P. M. Everyone is invited to attend, free of charge.

BADGES FOR LOAN BALL ON SALE

Separate meetings of the college men and women were held Monday to discuss plans for the "Y" Charity Ball. Badges, which will admit owners to the dance, were distributed.

Scholastic Rating High at Oregon Last Term

Scholastic standings for the winter term were higher than they have been for several years despite the increasing standards of scholarship. Only seven students were forced to leave the university because of low grades. Over thirty were dropped in the fall. Thirty-nine were put on probation last term while 156 were on probation in the fall. High grades were also more frequent.

STUDENTS EXHIBIT WATER COLOR ART

A splendid exhibition of water color paintings done by the students of Prof. Eastmond is now on display in the Art Gallery. They consist of the "Dorothy and Donald" series and are illustrated with the art work of LaVern Page, Roland Browning, and Vivian Bentley.

Tweed knickers are worn by many of the co-eds at Ohio State University. The girls wear them to class as well as on hikes.

News of B. Y. U. Clubs

H. E. C.

The committee on arrangements has been working with the committee from the Agricultural club in planning a big conjoint party. The date and final announcements of the party will appear in the next issue of "The Y News."

SPANISH CLUB

A big picnic has been planned for the Spanish Club members at 5:30 o'clock Thursday, all those who are interested in Spanish will meet in 18-C. From there the party will journey to the river bottoms where games and luncheon will be enjoyed.

"BANYAN" WILL BE DEDICATED TO FRESHIES

Rumor has it that the annual, which will soon sail forth is extraordinary in quality and originality and is to be dedicated to the Freshmen. Some individuals claiming to have the inside track, assert that it will be in memory of the prominent ones in Freshman-Week escapades. A little article has fallen into our hands and we quote it in full:

"DEDICATION"

"To the group of 'Bolshewics,' who during Freshman week, tirelessly and unceasingly disrupted the peaceful atmosphere of our University, we willingly dedicate this Banyan. May it always stick with them, may its presence constantly be felt by them, and may it serve constantly to torment them as faithfully as they served their cause, when they were in action."

ATHLETES BANQUETED

All athletes, coaches and managers were banqueted by the B. Y. U. Domestic Science Department immediately following the conclusion of the Relay Carnival. Over 130 individuals were served in the Art Gallery. A program was furnished by the B. Y. U. girls trio and the B. Y. U. string quartette. Homer Christensen and Creed Haymond responded to toasts. Wayne Booth acted as master of ceremonies.

PUBLICATION ISSUE TO BE CANCELED

The spring issues of both the "White and Blue," and "Y's Guy" are canceled. This decision was made at a recent meeting of the Student Body Council in view of the fact that a considerable amount of last year's student body debt is still unpaid. Both publications were safely within their appropriations and it is with some regret that the editors agreed upon the cancellation.

PROF. HARRISON R. MERRILL, WRITER OF ILLUSTRATED STORIES

Professor Harrison R. Merrill is writing illustrated stories for primary children, dealing with pioneer life, which appear monthly in "The Children's Friend." They consist of the "Dorothy and Donald" series and are illustrated with the art work of LaVern Page, Roland Browning, and Vivian Bentley.

Oregon Agricultural College has an enrollment of 5,472 students this quarter. This includes the summer session and short course students.

DATE FOR THE ANNUAL GIRLS' DAY HAS BEEN CHOSEN

Prize Story For Elsie Carroll Contest Will Be Read and Medal Presented to The Winner.

The date for the annual girls' day has been chosen, May 5th will be turned over to the co-eds.

In the morning the girls will conduct the program. The lady guests to be honored this year are Miss Aretta Young and Mrs. Annie D. Palmer. The prize story for the Elsie Chamberlain Carroll contest will be read and the medal presented to the winner.

At 3:30 a reception will be given in the Art Gallery. Here the girls will be made acquainted with the honored guests and entertained with a short program.

In the evening comes the Girls' Ball. This dance is an annual leap year affair. The girls make the dates, buy the programs and ask for dances.

A successful day and good time is assured by the co-eds.

Band Concert Much Appreciated

The B. Y. U. band under the direction of Professor Robert Sauer, presented a band concert of sacred music before a large audience of music lovers last Sunday evening in College Hall. Miss Celestia Johnson, Miss Violet Johnson, and Murray Roberts gave vocal selections. The concert was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

The program was as follows:

Jex Oratorical Contest Next Monday

The Jex Oratorical Contest, the last contest of the year will take place Monday. The subject is optional. The winner will receive a medal given by Mr. Heber Jex of Salt Lake City, an alumnus of the institution.

This contest is probably the biggest of its kind during the year. The medal has been given so long that it has practically become a permanent affair. All contestants must hand their names to Mr. Harter before tonight at six thirty.

Swimming Meet To Be Held Tomorrow

The Intermountain Swimming Championship contests are scheduled to begin tomorrow night at the Deseret Gymnasium in Salt Lake City. The contest will last for two days and will undoubtedly be featured by a large number of swimming stars that will take part. Contestants from all parts of the West, including many of last year's winners will help to insure races of the highest type. Besides the regular dashes and distance races, special diving contests for men and women will be held. Handicap races, which will make the event unique are also scheduled. Life saving contests will also help to make the meet one of the most successful ever held.

Glee Club Lyceum Given in Am. Fork

The B. Y. U. Male Glee Club, under the direction of Professor Franklin Madsen, gave a very splendid Lyceum Concert in American Fork, Wednesday, April 19. The following classic program was rendered to a large and appreciative audience:

"Praise the Lord, O My Soul," Smart Vocal Duet, "Venetian Song," Fosti Violet and Celestia Johnson
(a) "Without You" — Parks
(b) "Just whistle a Low Tune," Parks
(c) "Ching-a-Ling," whistle obligato Glee Club

"The Bandolero" — Stuart Bass Solo — Carl Christensen
"Calm as the Night" — Pierce Glee Club

The club members were taken to American Fork in cars, and were heartily greeted by numerous attentive music lovers. They were cordially invited to return with similar treats of art.

Dramatic Readings Are Given

Miss Lucille Tuttle read the play, "Lilac Time," by Jane Cowell, last Wednesday evening in the Little Theatre. The audience greatly enjoyed both the play and its presentation.

Next Monday night the play, "Lady Windemere's Fan" will be read by Regina Hughes. It begins promptly at 7:30 P. M.

Colleges To Orate

An intercollegiate oratorical contest will be held between the University of Utah and the B. Y. U. This will be the first intercollegiate contest in oratory that this school has engaged in within the last few years. There is to be only one contestant. The contest which is open to everybody, will be held May 15th.

A block "Y" and probably a medal will be given to the winner. The subject must be one of vital interest to the nation.

Colorado Debaters Win Six Contests in East

The Colorado Aggie debaters have won six out of the seven debates on their trip having just completed a week of five straight victories. That is some record in view of the fact that the list of victims for the last seven days include Michigan Aggies, Marquette University, Wisconsin, Drake University, Iowa, Oklahoma Aggies, Colby College of Maine and Grand Island College, Nebraska. The only team that has been able to stop the Aggies for an instant is Cortner University, Nebraska, on the second clash of their trip.

FAVORABLE PUBLIC HERALD MOVEMENT WITH OPEN PURSES

Clubs and Businessmen of Provo Are First To Get Behind Progressive Plan For Raising Money.

As Friday night draws nearer, the possibilities and prospects for the establishment of a student-loan fund, grow larger and brighter.

Because of the realized need for such a fund the movement has been received by everyone, with open arms, glad hearts, and willing purses.

BUSINESS MEN AND CLUBS SUPPORT IT.

Among the first to get behind the plan were the business men and clubs of Provo. Their cooperation was expressed very clearly by one of the leaders who said that they would back the loan fund "morally, physically, and financially."

BOOSTING NOT CONFINED TO MEN.

Some of the strongest and most enthusiastic boosters of the Loan Fund plan are found among the Women's Societies of Provo and the University.

FACULTY ONE HUNDRED PER CENT STRONG.

No doubt the most enthusiastic support as yet manifest was by the University faculty at their regular Monday meeting. Following the example of the president they took the commitment by storm and in a few minutes practically every member was adorned with a "Y's Loan" badge. The one or two who failed to secure a badge felt and looked out of place. They lost no time in getting decorated appropriately.

STUDENT BODY OUT STRONG.

Perhaps no other event of the year has received more whole-hearted support from the Student Body than this effort to establish a fund for worthy students at the University.

Men and women met separately, the former in the assembly hall and the latter in the Library.

The plan and program had hardly been submitted to the men by the committee when favorable comment was passed through College Hall at an abnormal rate. Several prominent students expressed themselves in favor of the move. A motion was made that the men of the Student Body get behind the Committee. A standing vote was called, and the motion passed unanimously.

Equal support was given by the girls, who showed their appreciation for the opportunity of helping establish a fund by donning a badge each, and accepting a number to dispose of elsewhere among loyal students and townspeople.

Campus Scandal Aired By University of California "Yellow Dog"

University of Southern California—Barking truths about the personal life of every prominent person on the campus, including the administration officials, the "Yellow Dog," U. S. C. "scandal sheet," made its annual appearance on the Trojan campus. Fifteen hundred copies were consumed in a few hours.

Announcements of "bogus" engagements of professors, reported burning of the Administration building, finding of wine in the Religious Education department, and pictures from Rogues' Gallery representing prominent law professors, were among the high lights of the issue.

First Band Concert Held

The first of the "Out of Doors" band concert was given last afternoon on the "Y" campus. Judging from the number of students present and the opinions that have been expressed concerning it, these band concerts will be very popular.

WHAT SHALL OUR PRESIDENT BE?

We have all been wondering which candidate we want for our leader next year. Some want a certain man and others are in favor of another, but a definite conclusion can be reached only by placing each candidate against a standard and selecting the man coming nearest the mark.

Is your man an executive? To "fill the bill" he must be. This quality should never be overlooked, for therein lies a man's possible success or failure.

But executive ability alone is not enough. Is your candidate enthusiastic? He must have pep and fire to keep the Student Body from going to sleep. Then he must be an "all around" man, not over-developed in any particular line, but possessing development in all the activities.

These are some of the things we must think about in selecting our president.

THE PROSPECT OF A STUDENT LOAN FUND

All the students should rejoice in the prospect of a permanent STUDENT LOAN FUND. It is probable that there is not a university or college in the land which does not lose students every year because of inadequate funds. This condition may not be entirely overcome, but it can be, for the most part, alleviated by such a plan as is now under way in this institution.

Aside from the enthusiastic activities in putting the plan over, it is notable that most, if not all, of the leading citizens of Provo are behind the move and success seems assured.

A more worthy cause cannot be thought of, and in the words of Harold Bentley, chairman of the committee prosecuting the plan: "We hope it GOES OVER BIG."

INVITATION MEET MOST SUCCESSFUL

The Twelfth Annual Invitation Track and Field Meet, under the auspices of our University, was proclaimed by all a success after the conclusion of the day's events on the "Y" Athletic field Saturday, April 22. The Athletic Department with Coach E. L. Roberts and Manager Vernon Tolboe, deserve special mention for the highly efficient work that they, with their assistants, performed in bringing the Athletics together and conducting the meet.

No other meet of its kind and character has or could have been more successfully conducted. Every event was run off precisely on scheduled time, although it seemed an impossibility for so many events, with nearly one hundred and fifty athletes competing, to be staged.

We feel justified in stating that such a meet brings an investment in attendance to the school as all who were in attendance were deeply impressed with the "Y" Spirit.

The finest institution in the world is a pretty girl who doesn't know she is pretty.

Remember that nine out of every ten men that reach the top of the ladder had someone holding the ladder.

Education is a fine thing for those who have a little common sense to start with.

It's all right for a man to love all mankind, but if he gets to loving towards all woman-kind he is apt to end up in jail.

GROWTH AND INTEREST THROUGH COOPERATION

"Cooperation encourages growth; and stimulates interest." To this end the convention of the Western Intercollegiate Press Association, held April 17th to 19th, in Palo Alto, California, was successful. Plans pertinent to news writing and gathering; staff organizations, business method and college papers in general, were enthusiastically discussed. The general sentiment was that the selection of the officers should not be left to general student body elections. Appointment to such offices will insure competency and eliminate party favorites, is well argued.

A movement toward consolidation was seriously urged at the convention. The Union of the Western, Southern and Pacific Intercollegiate Associations would result in effective cooperation along the line of college news service. Plans for intercollegiate radio service, to be worked out between all of the colleges of the Western United States received attention.

Utah was well represented at the convention. Five men from the Beehive State were in attendance. In case no amalgamation of the three associations takes place, the next convention is to be held in Salt Lake City, with Karl King as president. That the broad field of activity in college publications is now in the vanguard and awaits merely active cooperation was the general sentiment of the convention.

WHY WE SHOULD FOSTER POLITICAL PARTIES

The subject of whether parties should be tolerated or not in the coming election has been discussed extensively.

If "rotten" politics are indulged in, parties only act as a medium in which to express them. But if politics are carried on, as they should be, in a clean, wholesome manner, parties then furnish a means by which enthusiasm, zeal and pep can be expressed.

Parties also introduce and bring the candidates before students, through their rallies and party programs.

College students realize it is the students and not the party that should be voted into office. But the parties bring the candidates before the students and a more sagacious choice can thus be made.

ELECTION VERSUS APPOINTMENT

The new constitution has taken a number of offices of the elective list and made them appointive. There is grave doubt being expressed by many students as to the wisdom of this, for they fear that the benefits derived, if there are any, may not be commensurate with the bad resulting from diminished enthusiasm.

As is obvious there are two sides to this question. The students, it appears, should have the privilege of electing their own officers and individual efficiency should be the standard. But there are many problems which cannot be solved by individual efficiency—where more than one individual is concerned. For instance each of our three publications would be a failure if each editor pulled at cross purposes with the manager of his journal. There are situations demanding teamwork and it may be that efficiency is best served by allowing the head of an organization to select those with whom he must get along.

If the students will concentrate their energy and enthusiasm on the officers who are to be elected and elect the right ones they need not worry about those who will be appointed.

It should not be forgotten, however, that the students are the dictators in this matter, and it rests solely in their hands. They all voted to have it as it is.

ATTENDANCE AT BAND CONCERTS

The Band Concert given Friday, from 4:30 to 5:30, on the campus, was very fine and greatly enjoyed by all those who attended, but sorry to say these were very few.

It is urged that more students and faculty members attend the concerts which will be given each Friday at 4:30. Professor Sauer and his band are working hard to make these programs worth while.

The idea that salvation is free probably did not originate with the evangelist.

Control your tongue and you can control an ordinary situation.

PERSONAL NOTES

Since Ray Robinson sprained his ankle playing ball and is stationed at home, he is trying to run opposition to the Seniors by raising a third eyebrow.

Clayde and Leland Killpack entertained at dinner Sunday afternoon in honor of Mary Cherry and Ray Robinson. The invited guests included Hazel Foote, Claressa Jones, Etta Marley, Marie Smith and Lovell Killpack.

LaVern Page was the week end guest of LaVon Harrington in American Fork.

Miss Myrtle Jensen had as her week end guest, Miss Virginia Campbell of Salt Lake.

Lela Maudsley was a Lehi visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethlyn Hodson entertained at an after-church party Sunday evening. A delicious luncheon was served to Mary Mortimer, Arthur Lewis and Blair Thomas.

Myron Roley was a week end visitor at Salt Lake.

Seth Davis, a former "Y" student, was a Provo visitor Saturday.

Miss Mabel Straw entertained at an impromptu party at her home in Springville Saturday evening. Those present were Alice Packard, George Johnson, and Monte Groesbeck.

Miss Helen Talmadge was a Lehi visitor Sunday.

Professor Wilford M. Poulson chaperoned his Psychology class to the State Mental Hospital, Friday afternoon. As far as can be ascertained all arrived home in safety.

Helen Phillips, Ruth Buckley, Neal Thurman and Frank Thomas enjoyed a hiking trip to Maple Flat Sunday afternoon.

Nellie Clark spent the week end in Salt Lake.

In honor of Terry Oldroid and Mike Bean, Reed Holt entertained at a dancing party at Hansen's Tuesday evening. Mr. Oldroid left Wednesday to fulfill a mission in the Northwestern States and Mr. Bean left for the Mexico Mission.

Miss Wanda Booth of Salt Lake was the week end guest of her brother Wayne and of Miss Gertrude Olson.

About 100 New York University students will make a commercial tour of Europe this summer, under the direction of Professor DeHass, of the Foreign Exchange Department, and Professor Forsdale of Harvard.

Us and Otherwise

PAINTING ROSES IN THE CHEEKS WITH DUMB BELLS

Painting roses in the cheeks of young girls with dumb bells is advocated by Dr. Martha Tracy, dean of the Women's Medical college, in Philadelphia.

"There is nothing better than five minutes with a pair of dumb bells if a girl wants red roses in her cheeks," said Dr. Tracy. "It has a lip stick and the rouge pot backed off the boards."

Willie—Pop, how come they call a ship "She"?
Pop—Son, if you ever tried to steer one you wouldn't ask.

Ma—Willie, you better put your books up and go to bed.—Gleaner.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN FAILING

Try this:
Spit on the floor, and throw mud on the ceiling. Skip half your classes, don't even get your lessons, and be sure and do just what the teacher says not to do. Come to school when you feel like, go home when you want to, and don't accomplish anything at either place.

After you get it done call yourself a man.

BLINDNESS

We are all blind until we see
That, in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making.
If it does not make the man.
Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilded goes?
In vain we build the world unless
The builder, also grows.—Kiwanian

Miss Kirkham was filling out a health report for the school nurse. She saw the abbreviation "temper-teeth" on the record, and wrote notes home to the parents, asking them to have their children's temperance teeth attended to.

Photographer—Don't you think it would look better if you would place your hand on your father's shoulder?
Stanley's Father—It would look much more natural if he would put his hand in my pocket.

You do not ever find an epitaph in any cemetery reading, "Here lies a chackerrack pool player!"

Grinnell Gets Fortune

Grinnell College, Iowa—As a result of the will of John L. Herrig, '88, of New York, leaving his fortune to the university, construction has been started on a $500,000 gymnasium here, it was announced recently.

Spring Fever

There's a fever that is prevalent, a most peculiar thing,
It seems to come about the time the birds begin to sing.
And when the sun shines brightly; the patient gets much worse.
Then it falls to Mother Nature to be the loving nurse.

It's very, very catching, and it lasts a lengthy time.
It makes you feel like strolling down Lover's lane sublime.
Perhaps you get the sleeping blues or something more or less,
Like a wish to stay right out of school, or quit or sluff, I guess.

An epidemic found its way up to this school last week.
It came in through the windows, just like any sneak.
Then sure enough, it soon had hold of everybody here—
But strange to say, the attitude of all was far from fear.
Early Monday morning various symptoms did appear.
The students shuffled their classes, then wandered far and near.
The band was out on Tuesday, they could not keep still,
But livened all our B. Y. boys up to old "Y" hill.

On Wednesday the seige was worse, we missed our friendly greeting
When the faculty was missing from eleven-thirty meeting.
Then Thursday, it was raging high—the profs had all returned,
And couldn't make the students work no matter how they spurred.

By this time, things were serious—the fever had the sway.
So it was announced that Friday would be a holiday.
Someone talked to Mother Nature, but scarcely could believe her
When she said this tumult had been caused, by a seige of the—
SPRING FEVER!

WHICH DO YOU CHOOSE

My college girl is tall and slender
My girl back home is fat and low,
My college girl wears silks and satin
My girl back home wears calico.
My college girl is fast and speedy
My girl back home is pure and good.
Do you think I'd choose the college girl?
You know darn well I would!

—Purple and White

He—Do you go to college?
She—No, I am not that kind of a girl!
—Lord Jeff

He—My that's a beautiful arm you have.

She—Yes, I got that playing basket ball.

He—Did you ever play football?
—Voo Doo

Iowa State College—Petitions to the numbers of 30 have been filed nominating candidates for the beauty section of the 1922 Bomb. Of this number twelve are from the freshman class, nine from the sophomore class, five from the junior and five from the senior classes.

Harold—That soprano had a large repertoire.

Maggie—Ain't it the truth now, since you speak of it, her dress only made it look worse. —Purple Cow

First Nimrod—Hey, don't shoot, your gun isn't loaded.
His partner—Can't help that, the bird won't wait. —Voo Doo

Professor—How many wars has England had?

Stud—Six.
Professor—Enumerate them.
Stud—One, two, three, four, five, six.

Northwestern University—A corporation to supervise all university publications here will be formed soon, it was learned recently.

Does your fiancée know much about automobiles?
Heavens no; she asked me if I cooled my car by stripping the gears.

LEGS

Legs to the right of us,
Legs to the left of us,
Legs in front of us,
How they display them!
On they go trippingly,
Dainty and skippingly;
Frost that bites nippingly
Does not dismay them.

Straight legs and bandy ones,
Bony legs and dainty ones,
Awkward and handy, ones,
Flirt with the breezes;
Round legs and flatter ones,
Thin legs and fatter ones,
Especially the latter ones,
Showing their knees.

Knock-kneed and honey ones,
Real legs and phony ones,
Silk-covered tony ones,
Second to none;
Straight and distorted ones,
Mates and ill-mates ones,
Home and imported ones,
Ain't we got fun?

—Purple and White

When you tell a man something goes in one ear and out the other,
When you tell a woman something, it goes in both ears and out her mouth.

IN DEFENSE OF THE BOBBED CO-ED.

We don't profess to beauty,
And we don't profess to class,
We know we aren't so graceful
As the marcelled, ratted class.

We know the men don't like it (?)
But goodness! We don't care!
For we don't have to grapple
With a mop of stringy hair.

We don't have to struggle
With a pair of red hot tongs,
Or worry about hairnets,
Or where a rat belongs.

Our hair flies free and easy
And blows where'er it deigns,
No, we don't profess to beauty,
But we do profess to brains.

—Nevada Sagebrush

One hot summer day a beau stopped at the florists to order a box of flowers for his lady love. At the same time he purchased a design for a funeral of a friend. On the card for the girls box he wrote: "Hoping this may help you bear the heat," and on the other card he wrote the one word "Sympathy."

Soon the girl telephoned, "Thank you for the flowers, but why did you write Sympathy on the card?"
There was no word from the other card.

Living Seven Different Characters In

"His Nibs"

President

RICHARD CONDIE

In considering the qualities that seem essential in the make up of a man who is being considered as a very likely leader of our student body for the coming year we can not readily afford to tend towards the eccentric. We favor the man who exhibits clear rapid and tactful thinking, in numerous affairs. In Mr. Richard Condie we find just such a person, rich in experiences and wide awake to the possibilities that await us in the year to come.

HAROLD BENTLEY

Executive ability, integrity and "ginger" are virtues essential for a number-one student body president and Harold Bentley outstandingly possesses these qualities. If you would perpetuate B. Y. U. glory, elect a man who puts things over and holds the respect of all who know him.

He was student body president of his high school, served for two years as stake clerk, was secretary of Chihuahua Mission for one year. This year he won an oratorical contest, has been president of the Spanish Club for two quarters, and last but not least he writes the sports for the News, in which capacity, according to the present editor, he is without a peer.

"HY" HARTER

"Buy his works we shall judge him." In considering Harter for Student Body President the above quotation gives us ample grounds upon which to base our conclusion that he is the man who can successfully lead the students of the B. Y. U. for the ensuing year. One needs only to recall the "Hello" that means your friend and mine; or remember the poise and eloquence as he fought for mental supremacy over Southern California; or review a record full of achievement and one which has carried with it honor and victory for the B. Y. U., to realize that if we want a leader, an executive, but above all commoner, one from the masses, for our next student body President, cast your vote for "Hy."

"BUDDY" KEELER

He's a fellow that his friends love, and his enemies admire. And we must admit that he has enemies, for enemies are marble stones which lead to his house of attainment, and are marked with the word Character.

He served the "Y" faithfully before he went to another school in the mission field, and he has served quietly but efficiently since his return.

He was the center around which the team that won the State in basketball twined; he is a center around which, purpose, enthusiasm, loyalty, and leadership turn; we want him as the center around which to turn progress, pep, school spirit and a better college next year.

Purpose, enthusiasm, loyalty and leadership—what else makes the President of any state or school?

His friends will vote for him; his enemies will at least have their children vote for him; and those on the fence, if they wish to keep their worm eaten board seats safe under them, must vote for—"Buddy" Keeler.

WAYNE MAYHEW

The student body needs an efficient capable leader. It is for the students, by their vote, to place in office the man best fitted to direct student body affairs. The real man is he who has the power of organization, who has business training and who has the capacity for leadership. Only he who is possessed of such qualifications can successfully encourage Athletics, Dramatics, Debating and the other activities of our school in which we excel.

The Student Body needs a modest man and one of retiring disposition, but one thoroughly able, thoroughly willing and thoroughly dependable.

The Student Body needs Wayne Mayhew for President.

Vice-President

VIRGINIA CHRISTENSEN

No other girl in school has had the experience to fit her for the office of vice-president that Virginia Christensen has had.

In '19-'20 she was vice-president of the High School Student Body; in '20-'21 she was vice-president of the Freshman class. This year she has taken a leap in all class activities. Virginia has a personality that makes everyone love her. As leader of the Girls Organization she will prove an affable leader.

Her enthusiasm and executive ability will support any president and she will insure us of the best year in B. Y. U. history.

HELEN CANDLAND

Helen Candland is the girl who does things; the girl who is behind every Student Body activity. Helen has always been interested and more, she has always been ACTIVE in Student capacities. Helen is now a member of the Banyan staff, and considerable credit is due her for her consistent, untiring, efforts to make this year's Banyan a banner issue. Helen needs little recommendation to the students of this school, for every girl has witnessed her abilities to lead and to attend to executive affairs. While in the B. Y. U. High School she won an oratorical contest, was several years class officer, and also student body officer.

Students, ask yourselves if your candidate for vice-president fills these qualifications:

Does she possess executive ability? (She must be able to take charge of a meeting efficiently.) Has she a pleasing personality? (She must be a good mixer.) Is she an organizer? (She must lead the B. Y. U. Women) Does she possess originality? (She must have new ideas at a moment's notice.) Does she possess good, sound, common sense? (She must represent the school.)

There is one candidate who fills these requirements. She is Anna Marie Eggertsen.

ALICE TAYLOR

Alice always has succeeded, and always will. You know how essential Alice Reynolds is to the school, and what Alice Ludlow has done during the past year, so to keep up the good work we need Alice Taylor for vice-president. She is now acting as president of the French club, and vice-president of the "Y" Winter Walkers, and has proved successful in both offices. All through her school life she has been an "A" student in every capacity. She is active and has a charming personality which is necessary to hold this office the way it should be held.

Secretary-Historian

HENRIETTA TAYLOR

The office of secretary and historian is measured by two words—dependability and capability. Henrietta possesses both. She is born with that desirable virtue, a sense of responsibility, and because of that she is dependable; she is every conscientious in her work and is willing to devote her time and efforts in making it the best. A capacity for clear thinking is hers. Besides that she is put down in a clear, concise manner what she thinks.

If you want a girl with all the qualities of a secretary and historian, vote for Henrietta.

CELESTIA JOHNSON

Celestia Johnson is a very fit candidate for the office of Secretary and Historian of the B. Y. U. Student Body.

"Cess" has always been a leader. Her intuition and past training in prominent school offices makes her a very able candidate.

Her ability has been shown in her past work in the institution. Everything which "Cess" has ever undertaken has been a decided success; never has anything failed under her supervision.

"Cess" is a booster for the B. Y. U. and will always be. She is always on the job, so let's make "Cess" the school's Secretary and Historian for 1922-23.

ELAYNE CHRISTENSEN

Elayne Christensen is an "A" student. Throughout her school life she has always been among the leaders.

Elayne has ability. This year she assisted in coaching a play which was produced in the Columbia Theatre of Provo and also in the Salt Lake Theatre. She has been one of the most efficient and active members of the Public Service Bureau.

Elayne is pleasing to work with. Her charming personality has marked her as one of the most popular girls of the school. Her lead in Student Body activity prepares her excellently for the office of Secretary and Historian.

GLENN HARMON

Glenn Harmon, the present editor of the Y's Guy has distinguished himself in various fields of activity. He leaves Friday for California, where he will meet the University of Redlands in debate. Glenn was a member of the debating team that defeated the U. of U. at Salt Lake; he won the Dixon cup for extemporaneous speaking this year. Mr. Harmon is a graduate of the Carbon County H. S., where he was editor of the "Carbon" for two years. He was also present there for the same length of time. He served one term as City Attorney of Provo, where he is a practicing attorney.

Mother—I think it's wonderful to have a limousine lighted inside like that one of George's.
Innocent Daughter—That's funny, I never saw any lights.

Business Manager of "The Y News"

PAUL MURDOCK

Paul Murdock, the Heber business man. Paul is making business his major in the University. He has always been active along business lines, and has shown great adaptability to such work. While in High School, and also since coming to the "Y" he has shown his executive ability. He debated several years in High School, and made the team in this school two years ago.

CARL CHRISTENSEN

Carl J. Christensen, the business man for a business man's job. He is now Business Manager of the "Y" News, and has previously been a staff member. He has distinguished himself in dramatics, this being his fourth year. He has been Cheer Master of this school. Carl has always been an active student, and has shown his ability to handle student affairs. The business men of Provo have confidence in him, and they will have, as Manager of the "Y" News.

LELAND WENTZ FOR BUSINESS MANAGER

Good business necessitates an industrious manager. Leland Wentz can organize both men and money. His class record, debating ability and the Freshman edition of the "Y" News prove that he has one outstanding characteristic, that of being able to stick to and hold enthusiasm for a job until it is finished. While preparing to debate the U. of U. he would work energetically until three a. m., and then be back to his task by six a. m. It was his business to succeed in debating, he managed it. Let him manage, with equal success, your business, the "Y" News.

DEAN FOR MANAGER

Few B. Y. U. students receive the recognition from business men that Stanley R. Dean is given. Now he is headed business men are not prone to take notice of every "kid" that comes along. But they do listen to Dean. There's a reason for this. The reason is that they like his personality, his foresight, push and determination. Stan's ability and worth is just beginning to be realized at the University. As a consequence you will see that he is one of the few real doers in school.

Voters, do your duty to the "Y" News. Put the best man in as Manager.

ROYDEN DANGERFIELD

Part of the success of our student publication depends upon the advertising material and business men's support. It is the duty and problem of the Business Manager of the "Y" News to put over the outside financial support. Royden Dangerfield is a capable man for the office. His work in handling class and student body affairs prove him tried and true. Adding to this his genial nature and popularity with students and business men, he fulfills the best of requisites.

Editor of "The Y's Guy"

MIETH MAESER

Mieth Maeser is a very prominent student of the B. Y. U. Mieth is an alumna of the Murdock Academy class of '18, for three successive years. Mr. Maeser served a two year mission in the Northwestern States. After returning from his mission he entered the Young University as "ye humble Freshman" The Board of Control early recognized his ability as a leader and appointed him to the position of Yellmaster. He will show the students his literary ability as editor of the "Y" News, with the help of the journalism class. Students, for a peppy "Y's Guy" editor, Mieth is the man that is able to combine executive ability with a literary experience.

CARLYLE MAW

Energy and ability are the two words in the English language most characteristic of Carlyle Maw. His record is his soundest recommendation.

He was student body officer two years in High School and a member of the state championship debating team; also, at the same time, debating manager. Last year he was cheer master, won the Thanksgiving oratorical contest, member inter-class championship debating team, and on the inter-school debate with Weber. He was on the Sophomore championship interclass debating team this year.

He is a pillar of strength to the "Y" News, being at the present time a member of the staff. He has also been a liberal contributor to the Y's Guy.

He is the man with the experience to edit next year's Y's Guy.

Managing Editor of the "Banyan"

WAYNE C. BOOTH

Wayne C. Booth is a real man of executive ability. He is a BUSINESS MAN for a BUSINESS MAN's job. His past activities are many and varied. At American Fork High School he was a leader. In his Junior year, class president and cheer master, in his senior year, he was Student Body President, member of debating team, and also valedictorian. He filled two years' mission in the Northwestern States, was a commissioned officer in the 145th F. A. during the war, and chosen as bishop of Highland Ward, where he served until entering the B. Y. U. During this time he was nominated to represent Utah County in the State Legislature. He is now a member of the Y News staff.

VIVIAN W. BENTLEY

The position of Banyan Editor calls for an experienced and reliable man, who can put things over. V. W. Bentley, now on the Banyan staff, has proven his capability of filling this important position, by his faithful work and push already exhibited in putting out this year's book, the biggest and best year book in the history of the B. Y. U.

From all evidence, next year will bring the biggest Student Body of the best of any year previous. With these prospects in view, we need a strong man at the head of the Banyan staff, who can produce a year book which will equal in growth the of the prospective year and Bentley is the man to put it over.

ROLAND BROWNING

Roland Browning is a capable man who has had the experience necessary for a successful editor. Browning comes to us from the Weber Normal College has a very extensive knowledge of year books. For two years he was an active member of the staff of the Accur, Weber's Annual, which is known as a very special did book. Again he played an active part on their weekly paper, The Herald, and the Literary Journal. He is a writer and artist of ability and distinction. Mr. Browning has fulfilled a mission since graduating from Weber and is now Staff Artist for the Banyan.

The thirtieth birthday of the Daily Cardinal, students newspaper at the University of Washington was celebrated on April 4th.
